Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 23 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Early fog Monday, otherwise warm, mainly dry with some brightness.

Today:
Overnight fog and low cloud burning back to the coasts but will linger around the north coast for much of the day. Inland it will be dry, bright with some warm sunshine and light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry and bright evening away from coasts where low cloud and mistiness is likely. Clear spells overnight inland but low cloud pushing some way inland. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tuesday:
All areas will be dry and warm with some good spells of sunshine, overnight fog and low cloud burning off in the morning. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday and Thursday continuing to be warm with sunshine inland and some cloud at the coast. Friday will see some fresher conditions arrive but this will clear coastal cloud.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.